

FLORIDA OR ALABAMA RESIDENCY DECLARATION INFORMATION

A Florida or Alabama "resident for tuition purposes" is an independent person who has, or a dependent person whose parent or legal guardian has established and maintained legal residence in Florida or Alabama for at least twelve (12) months. Residency in Florida or Alabama must be for the purpose of establishing a permanent legal residence and not merely to just attend school at an institution of higher education. To qualify as Florida or Alabama resident for tuition purposes, you must be a U.S. citizen, permanent resident alien, or legal alien granted indefinite stay by the bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services. Other persons not meeting the twelve (12) month legal residence requirement may be classified as Florida or Alabama residents for tuition purposes only, if they fall within one of the limited special categories authorized by the Florida Legislature and Florida Board of Education for exemption. All other persons are ineligible for classification as a "Florida or Alabama Resident for Tuition Purposes."

Documents supporting the establishment of legal residence in Florida or Alabama must be dated, issued, or filed 12 months prior to the first day of classes of the term for which an in-state classification is sought.

Who may be eligible to establish Florida or Alabama residency for tuition purposes?

- U.S. citizens, permanent resident aliens, and certain Visa categories
- Independent persons (not claimed by anyone other than themselves for Federal Income Tax purposes), who have resided, and been employed in a permanent, full-time position, in Florida or Alabama for the last 12 months or more.
 - Independent: 24 years of age or older; married (must provide marriage certificate if student is under 24); has children who receive more than half of their support from the student; has other dependents who live with and receive more than half their support; is a veteran of the U.S. Armed Forces or is currently serving on active duty (provide DD214); both of the student's parents are deceased (provide death certificates); student was (until age 18) a ward of the court.
 - Dependent: All students who do not meet the definition of an independent student shall be classified as dependent.
- Either parent or legal guardian of a dependent child. Federal Income Tax documents will be required to prove dependency. The term "dependent child" means any person, whether living or not living with his/her parent or legal guardian, who is eligible to be claimed by his/her parent or legal guardian as a dependent under the Federal Income Tax who received more than 50% of the true cost of living expenses for his/her parent or legal guardian.

Who is not eligible to establish Florida or Alabama residency for tuition purposes?

- Students who are dependent on out-of-state parents (claimed on the parent(s) Federal Income Tax form).
- Students who moved to the State of Florida or Alabama for the sole purpose of attending an institution of higher education.
- Students who claim independence but cannot document independence.
- Certain Visa Categories.
